

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

The President and Secretary, or the officers performing the functions of president and secretary, so elected may take all steps and do all things necessary and proper to be done for the renewal of the existence of such corporation as hereinbefore provided, and their acts in furtherance of such renewal shall be as valid and effective as if performed and done by the last president and secretary, or the officers performing the functions of president and secretary, of such corporation. After a renewal of the existence of such corporation shall be effected, the last president, or the officer performing the functions of president, or his successor, elected as provided in this Section, shall forthwith call a meeting of the stockholders of such corporation, upon such notice as is required by the Certificate of Incorporation, Charter or by-laws, for a regular meeting thereof, and at such meeting the stockholders shall elect a full board of directors, in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation or Charter. The gross load weight of a vehicle, the use of which is for business or the carriage of property shall be ascertained by adding the maximum load capacity of such vehicle to the weight of said vehicle. The fee to be paid for the registration of a convertible vehicle shall be estimated upon that gross load weight, which shall be the greater, whether of the vehicle as a carrier of persons or a carrier of property. Upon the receipt of the application and the proper registration fee calculated as aforesaid, the Secretary of State shall register the said motor vehicle in a book to be kept for that purpose and shall issue to the owner a registration certificate; and the Secretary of State, at the expense of the State, shall provide two numbered tags for each motor vehicle, excepting motorcycles, containing the registration number, the figures of which shall not be less than four inches in height and the abbreviated name of the State and the year. The Secretary of State at the expense of the State, shall provide one numbered tag of flexible metal for motorcycles containing the registration number, the figures of which shall not be less than one and three-eighths inches in height, and the abbreviated name of the State and year, the figures to run lengthwise (one above the other) of the number tag, which shall not be shorter than seven inches and two and one-quarter inches in width; the same to be attached to the rear mud guard of the motorcycle, provided however, that non-residents of this State shall be entitled to the same exemptions from the provisions of the said last mentioned sections as is granted to the citizens of this State by the laws of the State in which said non-residents reside. No motor vehicle shall be registered, the gross load weight of which shall exceed twenty-seven thousand pounds.

If application for the registration of any motor vehicle other than a motorcycle, is made on or after the first day of September of any year, only one-half of the above specified fee shall be required by the Secretary of State for the registration of such motor vehicle other than motorcycles for that year.

The fees provided for by Sections 197, 199, 200 and 201 of this Chapter shall include all the fees due the Secretary of State upon any license or certificate provided for by said last-mentioned Sections."

Section 1. That the town council of the Town of Clayton is authorized and empowered upon petition, as hereinafter provided, to pave, gutter, curb and grade the streets of The Town of Clayton, or so many of such streets, or such parts thereof, as may be selected for that purpose, and, also, to build and improve the sewers and conduits in any of said streets selected to be paved as aforesaid, and to provide funds for the payment of the costs, or part of the cost of such improvements, as hereinafter set forth.

Section 3. Whenever any street, or section thereof, is paved or repaved after the passage of this Act, or is graded, curbed, guttered, or sewered, the town council of said town shall assess against the properties abutting upon the street, or the section thereof which is improved, under the provisions of this Act, not exceeding two-thirds of the whole cost of making such improvement, except the cost of grading and paving the intersections of streets. Provided, however, that the said town council shall make provision for a separate connection of each property, with the sewer, extending such connection to the curb line of the street, and that the entire cost of such connection shall be paid by the owners of abutting properties.

Section 5. All assessments made in pursuance of this Act shall be based upon the linear feet of property actually abutting upon that section of the street improved, and each linear foot of such property affected within the same block or square shall be assessed alike, regardless of the depth, width or other dimensions of such property. Regulation Concerning Trade

CHAPTER 192.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING TRADE.

UNIFORM CONDITIONAL SALES ACT.

AN ACT concerning conditional sales and to make uniform the law relating thereto.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met:

Section 1. (Definition of Terms) In this Act "Conditional Sale" means (1) any contract for the sale of goods under which possession is delivered to the buyer and the property in the goods is to vest in the buyer at a subsequent time upon the payment of part or all of the price, or upon the performance of any other condition or the happening of any contingency; or (2) any contract for the bailment or leasing of goods by which the bailee or lessee contracts to pay as compensation a sum substantially equivalent to the value of the goods, and by which it is agreed that the bailee or lessee is bound to become, or has the option of becoming the owner of such goods upon full compliance with the terms of the contract.

"Buyer" means the person who buys or hires the goods *covered by the conditional sale, or any legal successor in interest of such person.

UNIFORM CONDITIONAL SALES ACT.

"Filing district" means the sub-division of the State in which conditional sale contracts, or copies thereof, are required by this act to be filed.

"Goods" means all chattels personal other than things in action and money, and includes emblements, industrial growing crops, and things attached to or forming a part of land which are agreed to be severed before sale or under the conditional sale.

"Performance of the condition" means the occurrence of the event upon which the property in the goods is to vest in the buyer, whether such event is the performance of an act by the buyer or the happening of a contingency.

"Person" includes an individual, partnership, corporation, and any other association.

"Purchase" includes mortgage and pledge.

"Purchaser" includes mortgagee and pledgee.

"Seller" means the person who sells or leases the goods covered by the conditional sale, or any legal successor in interest of such person.

Section 2. (Primary Rights of Buyer) The buyer shall have the right when not in default to retain possession of the goods, and he shall also have the right to acquire the property in the goods on the performance of the conditions of the contract. The seller shall be liable to the buyer for the breach of all promises and warranties, express or implied, made in the conditional sale contract, whether or not the property in the goods has passed to the buyer.

Section 3. (Primary Rights of Seller) The buyer shall be liable to the seller for the purchase price, or for instalments thereof, as the same shall become due, and for breach of all promises made by him in the conditional sale contract, whether or not the property in the goods has passed to the buyer.

UNIFORM CONDITIONAL SALES ACT.

Section 4. (Conditional Sales Valid Except as Otherwise Provided) Every provision in a conditional sale reserving property in the seller after possession of the goods is delivered to the buyer, shall be valid as to all persons, except as herein-after otherwise provided.

Section 5. (Conditional Sales Void as to Certain Persons) Every provision in a conditional sale reserving property in the seller, shall be void as to any purchaser from or creditor of the buyer, who, without notice of such provision, purchases the goods or acquires by attachment or levy a lien upon them, before the contract or a copy thereof shall be filed as hereinafter provided, unless such contract or copy is so filed within ten days after the making of the conditional sale.

Section 6. (Place of Filing) The conditional sale contract or copy shall be filed in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in the County in which the goods are first kept for use by the buyer after the sale. It shall not be necessary to the validity of such conditional sale contract, or in order to entitle it to be filed, that it be acknowledged or attested. This section shall not apply to the contracts described in Section 8.

Section 7. (Fixtures) If the goods are so affixed to realty, at the time of a conditional sale or subsequently as to become a part thereof and not to be severable wholly or in any portion without material injury to the freehold, the reservation of property as to any portion not so severable shall be void after the goods are so affixed, as against any person who has not expressly assented to the reservation. If the goods are so affixed to realty at the time of a conditional sale or subsequently as to become part thereof but to be severable without material injury to the freehold, the reservation of property shall be void after the goods are so affixed as against subsequent purchasers of the realty for value and without notice of the conditional seller's title, unless the conditional sale contract, or a copy thereof, together with a statement signed by the seller briefly describing the realty and stating that the goods are or are to be affixed thereto, shall be filed before such purchase in the office where a deed of the realty would be recorded or registered to affect such realty. As against the owner of realty, the reservation of the property in goods by a conditional seller shall be void when such goods are to be so affixed to the realty as to become part thereof but to be severable without material injury to the freehold, unless the conditional sale contract, or a copy thereof, together with a statement signed by the seller briefly describing the realty and stating that the goods are to be affixed thereto, shall be filed before they are affixed, in the office where a deed would be recorded or registered to affect such realty.

Section 8. (Railroad Equipment or Rolling Stock) No conditional sale of railroad, or street or interurban railway equipment or rolling stock shall be valid as against the purchasers and creditors described in Section 5, unless the contract shall be acknowledged by the buyer or attested in like manner as a deed of real property, and the contract, or a copy thereof, shall be filed or recorded in the office of the Secretary of State of Delaware; and unless when any engine or car so sold is delivered there shall then be plainly and conspicuously marked upon each side thereof the name of the seller, followed by the word "owner."

Section 9. (Conditional Sale of Goods for Resale) When goods are delivered under a conditional sale contract and the seller expressly or impliedly consents that the buyer may resell them prior to performance of the condition, the reservation of property shall be void against purchasers from the buyer for value in the ordinary course of business, and as to them the buyer shall be deemed the owner of the goods, even though the contract or a copy thereof shall be filed according to the provisions of this act.

Section 10. (Filing) The filing officer shall mark upon the contract or copy filed with him the day and hour of filing and shall file the contract or copy in his office for public inspection. He shall keep a separate book in which he shall enter the names of the seller and buyer, the date of the contract, the day and hour of filing, a brief description of goods, the price named in the contract and the date of cancellation thereof; except that in entering the contracts mentioned in Section 8, the Secretary of State shall record either the sum remaining to be paid upon the contract or the price of the goods. Such book shall be indexed under the names of both seller and buyer. For filing and entering such contract or copy the filing officer shall be entitled to a fee of One Dollar except that for filing and entering a contract described in Section 8 the Secretary of State shall be entitled to a fee of Two Dollars.

Section 11. (Refiling) The filing of conditional sale contracts provided for in Sections 5, 6 and 7 shall be valid for a period of three years only. The filing of the contract provided for by Section 8 shall be valid for a period of fifteen years only. The validity of the filing may in each case be extended for successive additional periods of one year from the date of refiling by filing in the proper filing district a copy of the original contract within thirty days next preceding the expiration of each period, with a statement attached signed by the seller, showing that the contract is in force and the amount remaining to be paid thereon. Such copy, with statement attached, shall be filed and entered in the same manner as a contract or copy filed and entered for the first time, and the filing officer shall be entitled to a like fee as upon the original filing.

Section 12. (Cancellation of Contract) After the performance of the condition, upon written demand delivered personally or by registered mail by the buyer or any other person having an interest in the goods, the seller shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the demandant a statement that the condition in the contract has been performed. If for ten days after such demand the seller fails to mail or deliver such a statement of satisfaction, he shall forfeit to the demandant five dollars ($5.00) and be liable for all damages suffered. Upon presentation of such statement of satisfaction the filing officer shall file the same and note the cancellation of the contract and the date thereof on the margin of the page where the contract has been entered. For filing and entering the statement of satisfaction the filing officer shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five cents, except that the Secretary of State shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents for filing and entering a statement of the satisfaction of a contract described in Section 8.

Section 13. (Prohibition of Removal or Sale Without Notice) Unless the contract otherwise provides, the buyer may, without the consent of the seller, remove the goods from any filing district and sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of his interest in them; but prior to the performance of the condition, no such buyer shall remove the goods from a filing district in which the contract or a copy thereof is filed, except for temporary uses for a period of not more than thirty days, unless the buyer not less than ten days before such removal shall give the seller personally or by registered mail written notice of the place to which the goods are to be removed and the approximate time of such intended removal; not prior to the performance of the condition shall the buyer sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of his interest in the goods, unless he, or the person to whom he is about to sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of the same, shall notify the seller in writing personally or by registered mail of the name and address of the person to whom his interest in the goods is about to be sold, mortgaged or otherwise transferred, not less than ten days before such sale, mortgage or other disposal. If any buyer does so remove the goods, or does so sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of his interest in them without such notice or in violation of the contract, the seller may retake possession of the goods and deal with them as in case of default in payment of part or all of the purchase price. The provisions of this section regarding the removal of goods shall not apply, however, to the goods described in Section 8.

Section 14. (Refiling on Removal) When, prior to the performance of the condition, the goods are removed by the buyer from a filing district in this State to another filing district in this State in which such contract or a copy thereof is not filed, or are removed from another state into a filing district in this State where such contract or copy is not filed, the reservation of the property in the seller shall be void as to the purchasers and creditors described in Section 5, unless the conditional sale contract or a copy thereof shall be filed in the filing district to which the goods are removed, within ten days after the seller has received notice of the filing district to which the goods have been removed. The provisions of this section shall not apply, however, to the goods described in Section 8. The provisions of Section 11 regarding the duration of the validity of the filing and the necessity for refiling shall apply to contracts or copies which are filed in a filing district other than that where the goods are originally kept for use by the buyer after the sale.

Section 15. (Fraudulent Injury, Concealment, Removal or Sale) When, prior to the performance of the condition, the buyer maliciously or with intent to defraud, shall injure, destroy or conceal the goods, or remove them to a filing district where the contract or a copy thereof is not filed, without having given the notice required by Section 13, or shall sell, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of such goods under claim of full ownership, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be imprisoned for not more than one year or be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court.

Section 16. (Retaking Possession) When the buyer shall be in default in the payment of any sum due under the contract, or in the performance of any other condition which the contract requires him to perform in order to obtain the property in the goods, or in the performance of any promise, the breach of which is by the contract expressly made a ground for the retaking of the goods, the seller may retake possession thereof. Unless the goods can be retaken without breach of the peace, they shall be retaken by legal process; but nothing herein shall be construed to authorize a violation of the criminal law.

Section 17. (Notice of Intention to Retake) Not more than forty nor less than twenty days prior to the retaking, the seller, if he so desires, may serve upon the buyer personally or by registered mail a notice of intention to retake the goods on account of the buyer's default. The notice shall state the default and the period at the end of which the goods will be retaken, and shall briefly and clearly state what the buyer's rights under this act will be in case they are retaken. If the notice is so served and the buyer does not perform the obligations in which he has made default before the day set for retaking, the seller may retake the goods and hold them subject to the provisions of Sections 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23 regarding resale, but without any right of redemption.

Section 18. (Redemption) If the seller does not give the notice of intention to retake described in Section 17, he shall retain the goods for ten days after retaking within the State in which they were located when retaken, during which period the buyer, upon payment or tender of the amount due under the contract at the time of retaking and interest, or upon performance or tender of performance of such other condition as may be named in the contract as precedent to the passage of the property in the goods, or upon performance or tender of performance of any other promise for the breach of which the goods were retaken, and upon payment of the expenses of retaking, keeping and storage, may redeem the goods and become entitled to take possession of them and to continue in the performance of the contract as if no default had occurred. Upon written demand delivered personally or by registered-mail by the buyer, the seller shall furnish to the buyer a written statement of the sum due under the contract and the expense of retaking, keeping and storage. For failure to furnish such statement within a reasonable time after demand, the seller shall forfeit to the buyer Ten Dollars ($10.00) and also be liable to him for all damages suffered because of such failure. If the goods are perishable so that retention for ten days as herein prescribed would result in their destruction or substantial injury, the provisions of this section shall not apply, and the seller may resell the goods immediately upon their retaking. The provision of this section requiring the retention of the goods within the State during the period allowed for redemption shall not apply to the goods described in Section 8.

Section 19. (Compulsory Resale by Seller) If the buyer does not redeem the goods within ten days after the seller has retaken possession, and the buyer has paid at least fifty per cent of the purchase price at the time of the retaking, the seller shall sell them at public auction in the State where they were at the time of the retaking, such sale to be held not more than thirty days after the retaking. The seller shall give to the buyer not less than ten days' written notice of the sale, either personally or by registered mail, directed to the buyer at his last known place of business or residence. The seller shall also give notice of the sale by at least three notices posted in different public places within the filing district where the goods are to be sold, at least five days before the sale. If at the time of the retaking Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or more has been paid on the purchase price, the seller shall also give notice of the sale at least five days before the sale by publication in a newspaper published or having a general circulation within the filing district where the goods are to be sold. The seller may bid for the goods at the resale. If the goods are of the kind described in Section 8, the parties may fix in the conditional sale contract the place where the goods shall be resold.

Section 20. (Resale at Option of Parties) If the buyer has not paid at least fifty per cent of the purchase price at the time of the retaking, the seller shall not be under a duty to resell the goods as prescribed in Section 19, unless the buyer serves upon the seller, within ten days after the retaking, a written notice demanding a resale, delivered personally or by registered mail. If such notice is served, the resale shall take place within thirty days after the service, in the manner, at the place and upon the notice prescribed in Section 19. The seller may voluntarily resell the goods for account of the buyer on compliance with the same requirements.

Section 21. (Proceeds of Resale) The proceeds of the resale shall be applied (1) to the payment of the expenses thereof, (2) to the payment of the expenses of retaking, keeping and storing the goods, (3) to the satisfaction of the balance due under the contract. Any sum remaining after the satisfaction of such claims shall be paid to the buyer.

Section 22. (Deficiency on Resale) If the proceeds of the resale are not sufficient to defray the expenses thereof, and also the expenses of retaking, keeping and storing the goods and the balance due upon the purchase price, the seller may recover the deficiency from the buyer, or from any one who has succeeded to the obligations of the buyer.

Section 23. (Rights of Parties Where There is no Resale) Where there is no resale, the seller may retain the goods as his own property without obligation to account to the buyer except as provided in Section 25, and the buyer shall be discharged of all obligation.

Section 24. (Election of Remedies) After the retaking of possession as provided in Section 16 the buyer shall be liable for the price only after a resale and only to the extent provided in Section 22. Neither the bringing of an action by the seller for the recovery of the whole or any part of the price, nor the recovery of judgment in such action, nor the collection of a portion of the price, shall be deemed inconsistent with a later retaking of the goods as provided in Section 16. But such right of retaking shall not be exercised by the seller after he has collected the entire price, or after he has claimed a lien upon the goods, or attracted them, or levied upon them as the goods of the buyer.

Section 25. (Recovery of Part Payments) If the seller fails to comply with the provisions of Sections 18, 19, 20, 21 and 23 after retaking the goods, the buyer may recover from the seller his actual damages, if any, and in no event less than one-fourth of the sum of all payments which have been made under the contract, with interest.

Section 26. (Waiver of Statutory Protection) No act or agreement of the buyer before or at the time of the making of the contract, nor any agreement or statement by the buyer in such contract, shall constitute a valid waiver of the provisions of Sections 18, 19, 20, 21 and 25.

Section 27. (Loss and Increase) After the delivery of the goods to the buyer and prior to the retaking of them by the seller, the risk of injury and loss shall rest upon the buyer.

UNIFORM CONDITIONAL SALES ACT.

The increase of the goods shall be subject to the same conditions as the original goods.

Section 28. (Act Prospective Only) This act shall not apply to conditional sales made prior to the time when it takes effect.

Section 29. (Rules for Cases not Provided for) In any case not provided for in this act the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, and in particular those relating to principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress or coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other invalidating cause, shall continue to apply to conditional sales.

Section 30. (Uniformity of Interpretation) This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

Section 31. (Short Title) This act may be cited as the Uniform Conditional Sales Act.

Section 32. (Inconsistent Laws Repealed) Except so far as they are applicable to conditional sales made prior to the time when this act takes effect, all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 33. (Time of Taking Effect) This act shall take effect the first day of June, A. D. 1919.

of at least two weeks from earning full wages, but if incapacity extends beyond the period of two weeks, compensation shall begin on the fifteenth day after the injury; provided, however, that if such disability continues for four weeks or longer, such compensation shall be computed from the date of the injury. During the first two weeks after the injury, the employer shall furnish reasonable surgical, medical and hospital services, medicines and supplies, as and when needed, unless the employee refuses to allow them to be furnished by the employer. The cost of such services, medicines and supplies shall not exceed seventy-five dollars. If the employer shall, upon application made to him, refuse to furnish such services, medicines and supplies, the employee may procure the same, and shall receive from the employer, the reasonable cost thereof within the above limitations. If the employee shall refuse reasonable surgical, medical and hospital services, medicines and supplies tendered to him by his employer, he shall forfeit the right to compensation for any injury or any increase in his incapacity shown to have resulted from such refusal.

Section 3. That Chapter 90 of the Revised Code of the State of Delaware, as amended by Chapter 233, Volume 29, Laws of Delaware, be and the same is hereby amended by the repeal of 3193 j. Section 103, and the insertion in lieu thereof, of the following, to be styled 3193 j. Section 103:

(a) For the first four hundred and seventy-five weeks of total disability, fifty per centum of the wages of the injured employee as defined by this Act as amended; but the compensation shall not be more than fifteen dollars per week nor less than five dollars per week, and shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of four thousand dollars; provided, that if at the time of injury, the employee receives wages of less than five dollars per week, then he shall receive the full amount of such wages per week as compensation. Nothing in this paragraph (a) shall require the payment of compensation after disability shall cease.

THE DELAWARE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW.

Should partial disability be followed by total disability, the period of four hundred and seventy-five weeks mentioned in this paragraph (a) of this Section shall be reduced by the number of weeks during which compensation was paid for such partial disability.

(b) For disability for work partial in character (except the particular cases mentioned in the next succeeding sub-section (c) of this Section), fifty per centum of the difference between the wages received by the injured employee before the injury and the earning power of the employee thereafter, but such compensation shall not be more than fifteen dollars per week. This compensation shall be paid during the period of such partial disability for work; not, however, beyond two hundred and eighty-five weeks. Should total disability for work be followed by partial disability for work, the period of two hundred and eighty-five weeks mentioned in this sub-section (b) shall be reduced by the number of weeks during which compensation was paid for such total disability.

(c) For all permanent injuries of the following classes, the compensation, regardless of the earning power of such injured employee after such injury, shall be exclusively as follows:

For the loss of a hand, fifty per centum of wages during one hundred and fifty-eight weeks.

For the loss of an arm, fifty per centum of wages during one hundred and ninety-four weeks.

For the loss of a foot, fifty per centum of wages during one hundred and thirty-five weeks.

For the loss of a leg, fifty per centum of wages during one hundred and ninety-four weeks.

For the loss of an eye, fifty per centum of wages during one hundred and thirteen weeks.

For the loss of any two or more of such members, not constituting total disability, fifty per centum of wages during the aggregate of the period specified for each.

THE DELAWARE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW.

Unless the Board shall otherwise determine from the facts, the loss of both hands, or both arms, or both feet, or both legs, or both eyes, or an injury to the spine resulting in permanent and complete paralysis of both legs, or both arms, or of one leg and one arm, or an injury to the skull resulting in incurable imbecility or insanity, shall constitute total disability for work, to be compensated according to the provisions of sub-section (a) of this Section. Amputation between the elbow and the wrist shall be considered as the equivalent of the loss of a hand, and amputation between the knee and ankle shall be considered as the equivalent of the loss of a foot. Amputation at or above the elbow shall be considered as the loss of an arm, and amputation at or above the knee shall be considered as the loss of a leg. Permanent loss of the use of a hand, arm, foot, leg, or eye, shall be considered as the equivalent of the loss of such hand, arm, foot, leg or eye.

This compensation shall not be more than fifteen dollars per week, nor less than five dollars per week; provided, that, if at the time of injury, the employee receives wages of less than five dollars per week, then he shall receive the full amount of such wages per week as compensation.

(d) Should the employee die as a result of the injury, the period during which compensation shall be payable to his dependents under the next succeeding section shall be reduced by the period during which compensation was paid to him in his lifetime under this Section of this Article. No reduction shall be made for the amount which may have been paid for medical, surgical and hospital services and medicines nor for the expenses of last sickness and burial as hereinbefore provided. Should the employee die from some other cause than the injury as herein defined, the liability for compensation, expenses of last sickness and burial of such employee, shall cease.

Section 4. That Chapter 90 of the Revised Code of the State of Delaware, as amended by Chapter 233, Volume 29, Laws of Delaware, be and the same is hereby amended by the repeal of 3193 k. Section 104, and the insertion in lieu thereof, of the following, to be styled 3193 k. Section 104:—

THE DELAWARE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW.

3193 k. Section 104. In case of death, compensation shall be computed on the following basis and distributed to the following persons:

1. To the child or children, if there be no widow nor widower entitled to compensation, twenty-five per centum of wages of deceased, with ten per centum additional for each child in excess of two, with a maximum of sixty per centum, to be paid to their guardian.
2. To the widow or widower, if there be no children, twenty-five per centum of wages.
3. To the widow or widower, if there be one child, forty per centum of wages.
4. To the widow or widower, if there be two children, forty-five per centum of wages.
5. To the widow or widower, if there be three children, fifty per centum of wages.
6. To the widow or widower, if there be four children, fifty-five per centum of wages.
7. To the widow or widower, if there be five children or more, sixty per centum of wages.

Such compensation to the widow or widower shall be for the use and benefit of such widow or widower and of the dependent children, and the Industrial Accident Board may from time to time, apportion such compensation between them in such way as it deems best. The Industrial Accident Board, in its discretion, may require payments to be made direct to a minor who has been injured, and may also require payments to be made to the person caring for any dependent minor, when, in the opinion of the Industrial Accident Board, the expense of securing the appointment of a Guardian would be disproportionate to the amount of compensation payable to such minor.

THE DELAWARE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW.

8. If there be neither widow, widower nor children, then to the father and mother, or the survivor of them, if dependent to any extent upon the employee for support at the time of his death, twenty per centum of wages.

9. If there be neither widow, widower, children nor dependent parent, then to the brothers and sisters, if actually dependent to any extent upon the decedent for support at the time of his death, fifteen per centum of wages for one brother or sister, and five per centum additional for each additional brother or sister, with a maximum of twenty-five per centum; such compensation to be paid to their guardian.

Compensation shall be payable under this Section to or on account of any child, brother or sister, only if and while such child, brother or sister, is under the age of sixteen years. No compensation shall be payable under this Section to a widow, unless she was living with her deceased husband at the time of his death or was then actually dependent upon him for support, but in such case, compensation shall be distributed to the persons who would be dependents in case there were no widow. No compensation shall be payable under this Section to a widower, unless he be incapable of self-support at the time of his wife's death and be at such time dependent upon her for support.

The terms "child" and "children" shall include step-children and adopted children and children to whom the deceased stood in loco parentis, if members of the decedent's household at the time of his death, and shall include posthumous children, but shall not include married children.

Should any dependent of a deceased employee die, or should the widow or widower remarry, or should the widower become capable of self-support, the right of such dependent or such widow or widower to compensation under this Section shall cease.

If the compensation payable under this Section to or on account of any person shall for any cause cease, the compensation of the remaining persons entitled thereunder shall thereafter be the same as would have been payable to them had they been the only persons entitled to compensation at the time of the death of the deceased, provided, however, that the period shall be reduced by the number of weeks during which payments were made to the deceased or to any other person or class of persons entitled.

The wages upon which death compensation shall be based shall not in any case be taken to exceed thirty dollars per week nor to be less than ten dollars per week. Subject to the provisions of subsection (d) of the last preceding section, this compensation shall be paid during two hundred and eighty-five weeks and in the case of children entitled to compensation under this Section, the compensation of each child shall continue after such period of two hundred and eighty-five weeks until such child reach the age of sixteen years, at the rate of fifteen per centum of wages if there be but one child, with ten per centum additional for each additional child, with a maximum of sixty per centum. Children are not entitled to compensation during the period that compensation is payable to their mother or father, except as herein provided.

Section 5. That Chapter 90 of the Revised Code of the State of Delaware, as amended by Chapter 233, Volume 29, Laws of Delaware, be and the same is hereby amended by the repeal of 3193 r. Section 111, and the insertion in lieu thereof, of the following, to be styled 3193 r. Section 111:—

3193 r. Section 111. An award of said Board in the absence of fraud shall be final and conclusive between the parties, except as provided in 3193 p. Section 109, unless, within ten days after a copy thereof has been sent to the parties, either party appeals to the Superior Court for the County in which the injury occurred. In case of every such appeal, the cause shall be determined by the Court from the record, (which shall include a typewritten copy of the evidence and the finding and award of the Board), without the aid of a jury, and the Court may reverse, affirm, or modify the award of the Board, or remand the cause to the Board for a rehearing. In case any cause shall be remanded to the Board for a rehearing, the procedure and the rights of all parties to such cause shall be the same as in case of the original hearing before the Board. The Prothonotary shall not require any deposit or security to cover the costs incident to the taking of any appeals under this Article.

The Superior Courts for the several counties of the State of Delaware are hereby vested with jurisdiction to hear and determine all appeals taken pursuant to this Article. Said Courts may, by proper rules, prescribe the procedure to be followed in the case of such appeals, provided, however, that the Court shall fix a time for such hearings at the pending of next term of said court, after the date of such appeal, but the Court may extend the time for adequate cause shown.

The decision of the Court shall be in writing and shall show conformity to the provisions of this Article, and shall be filed with the Prothonotary of said Court, and such Prothonotary shall file a certified copy thereof with the Industrial Accident Board. When any such certified copy of the decision of said Court shall be filed as aforesaid, it shall be subject to the provisions of 3193 p. Section 109, and if the Board shall, in accordance with the provisions of 3193 p. Section 109, and, diminish, increase, or renew the compensation, then and in such case there shall be the same right of appeal as is above provided in this Section.

Costs may be awarded by said Court in its discretion, and when so awarded, the same costs shall be allowed, taxed and collected as are allowed, taxed and collected for like services in the same Court. Upon the hearing of any appeal, the Court may, in its discretion, appoint one or more impartial physicians or surgeons to examine the injuries of the claimant and to report thereon to the Court. Said Court shall have power to fix the compensation of such physicians or surgeons, and to tax the same as a part of the costs of the proceedings. Such report shall not be conclusive of the facts therein stated, but shall be advisory only.

Section 6. That Chapter 90 of the Revised Code of the State of Delaware, as amended by Chapter 233, Volume 29, Laws of Delaware, be and the same is hereby amended by the repeal of

THE DELAWARE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW.

THE DELAWARE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW.

Such payment of such sum by the employer shall operate as a satisfaction of such award or agreement as to the employer.

Payments from said fund shall be made by the said Trustee on orders from the Industrial Accident Board in the same amounts and at the same periods as are herein required of the employer. If, after liability shall have ceased, any balance of said fund shall remain, the same shall be returned to the employer who deposited the same, on an order signed as aforesaid.

In the latter case, the Board may, in its discretion, require the deposit of an acceptable security, indemnity or bond, to secure the payment of compensation liabilities as they are incurred.

Whenever a self-insurer under this Section shall enter into an agreement to pay compensation to an injured employee or his dependents in case of his death, or whenever an award shall be made by the Board in favor of such injured employee or his dependents in case of his death, the employer shall pay the full liability under said agreement or award to a Savings Bank or Trust Company in accordance with the provisions of 3193 u. In continuous employments, if immediately prior to the accident, the rate of wages was fixed by the day or hour, or by the output of the employee, his weekly wages shall be taken to be five and one-half times his average earnings at such a rate for a working day of ordinary length, excluding earnings from overtime, and using as a basis of calculation, his earnings during so much of the preceding six months as he worked for the same employer.

MASTERS, APPRENTICES AND EMPLOYEES.

INSURANCE FOR MASTERS, APPRENTICES AND EMPLOYEES.

AN ACT to regulate insurance carriers which insure employers against the liability imposed by the Act known and cited as "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917," said Act being Chapter 233, Volume 29, Laws of Delaware, by requiring that premium rates for such insurance shall be reasonable and adequate; by preventing discrimination in the classification of risks and in the premiums or allowances thereon made or charged by such insurance carriers; and by providing for the determination of such discrimination; and by taxing said insurance carriers and employers carrying their own risk, for the purpose of raising revenue for the State of Delaware, and for paying the necessary expenses of the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Delaware; and providing penalties for the violation of this Act, being an Amendment to Chapter 90 of the Revised Code of Delaware, entitled "Masters, Apprentices and Employees" by the addition of a new article thereto, entitled "Masters, Apprentices and Employees,—Article 6,—Insurance for Masters, Apprentices and Employees."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met:

That Chapter 90 of the Revised Code of the State of Delaware be and the same is hereby amended by adding a new Article thereto, entitled, "Masters, Apprentices and Employees,—Article 6,—Insurance for Masters, Apprentices and Employees," and the following new sections to be styled as 3193 yy. Section 144, 3193 zz. Section 145, 3193 aaa. Section 146, 3193 bbb. Section 147, 3193 ccc. Section 148, 3193 ddd. Section 149, 3193 eee. Section 150, 3193 fff. Section 151, and 3193 ggg. Section 152.

3193 yy. Section 144. That every insurance carrier which insures employers against the liability for compensation imposed by the Act known and cited as "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917," said Act being Chapter 233,

INSURANCE FOR MASTERS, APPRENTICES AND EMPLOYEES.

Volume 29, Laws of Delaware, or Acts amendatory thereof, or against liability at common law on account of accidental injuries to employees, shall file with the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Delaware, its classifications of risks and normal premium rates relating thereto, and all rules governing the application of the same (including rules or practices relating to payroll audits and the collection of premiums in advance or otherwise), together with any system of schedule or merit rating which purports to provide deviations from said normal premium rates for a hazard of the individual risk greater or less than that of the classification to which such risk is assigned; none of which shall take effect until approved by the said Industrial Accident Board as adequate and reasonable for the risks to which they respectively apply.

The said Industrial Accident Board may withdraw its approval of any such classification, rule, normal premium rate, or system of schedule or merit rating, if in the judgment of said Board, such classification, rule, normal premium rate, or system of schedule or merit rating is inadequate for the risks to which it applies, or is unreasonable or discriminates unfairly between risks of a like degree of hazard.

On and after the first day of July, 1919, no such insurance carrier shall issue, renew, or carry any insurance against liability for compensation under "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917," or Acts amendatory thereof, or against liability at common law on account of accidental injuries to employees, except in accordance with the classifications, rules, normal premium rates, and system of schedule or permit rating approved by the said Industrial Accident Board for such carrier as adequate and reasonable for the risks to which they respectively apply.

3193 zz. Section 145. Every system of schedule or merit rating providing deviations from normal premium rates for insurance against liability under the said "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917," or Acts amendatory thereof, shall be uniform in its application to all the risks in the class for which the deviation is made, and no such deviation shall be applied otherwise than upon inspection of the risk and calculation of the merit deviation by a rating bureau or association approved by the said Industrial Accident Board as adequate for the uniform application of classifications, rules, normal premium rates and schedule or merit rating.

Every deviation from normal premium rates herein provided for shall be clearly set forth in the policy or contract of insurance, or endorsements attached thereto.

3193 aaa. Section 146. An attested copy of every policy, contract or endorsement which purports to give any insurance against liability under "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917," or Acts amendatory thereof, and an attested copy of every endorsement thereon, shall be filed with the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Delaware, or with a rating Bureau or association approved by the said Board.

3193 bbb. Section 147. No insurer against the liability provided for in the said "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917," or Acts amendatory thereof, or in this Act, or against liability at common law on account of accidental injuries to employees, shall fix any classification, rule or schedule or merit rating, or charge any premium for such insurance, which is unreasonable or which discriminates unfairly between risks of essentially the same hazard, and having substantially the same degree of protection against accidents.

3193 ccc. Section 148. The Industrial Accident Board of the State of Delaware, upon written complaint or upon its own information, that discrimination in the classification of risks and in the normal premiums relating thereto, or in any rule or practice governing the application of the same, or in schedule or merit rating, exists, or that any insurance carrier, as herein defined, discriminates unfairly in any respect between risks of essentially the same hazard and having substantially the same degree of protection against accident, may, after due notice to all parties concerned, order a hearing for the purpose of determining such question of discrimination, and if upon such hearing the said Board shall determine that discrimination exists, it shall have power to order such discrimination removed. Any party in interest being dissatisfied with such order of the said Industrial Accident Board may, within thirty (30) days from the issuance of such order and notice thereof, commence an action in the Superior Court of the State of Delaware against the said Board as defendant, to vacate and set aside any such order upon the ground that such order is unlawful or unreasonable; in which suit the said Industrial Accident Board shall be served with subpoena and copy of the causes of action. The said Industrial Accident Board shall file its answer, and on leave of Court, any interested party may file an answer and become a party to the suit. Upon the filing of the answer of the said Industrial Accident Board, said action shall be at issue, and stand ready for hearing upon ten (10) days' notice by either party. The said Court is hereby given jurisdiction in such suit, and empowered to affirm, vacate, or set aside the order of the said Board in whole or in part, and to make such other order or decree as the Court shall decide to be in accordance with the facts and the law. During the pendency of such proceedings the order shall be suspended, and in event of the final determination against any insurer, any overcharge during the pendency of such proceedings shall be refunded by the insurer to the persons entitled thereto.

3193 ddd. Section 149. Every insurance corporation, mutual association or company, or interinsurance exchange, which insures employers against liability under "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917," or Acts amendatory thereof, or against liability at common law for accidental injuries to employees, shall annually, at such time as may be fixed by the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Delaware, file with the said Board a sworn statement of its premiums and loss experience from or on account of such insurance in the State of Delaware, together with a sworn statement of its total assets and liabilities, both of which statements shall be in such detail and form as the said Board may prescribe.

and its assistants and employees in administering and carrying out the provisions of said Act, and also for the purpose of securing other revenue for the general purposes of the State, a fund shall be created and maintained in the following manner:

(a) Every insurance carrier hereinbefore referred to, insuring employers who are or may be liable under "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917" to pay for compensation for personal injuries to or death of their employees, under the provision of "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917," and all amendments and supplements thereto, shall, as hereinafter provided, pay a tax upon all workmen's compensation or employers' liability premiums received, whether in cash or notes, in this State, or on account of business done in this State, or on account of premiums for compensation payable under said Compensation Law for such insurance in this State, at the rate of four per centum of the amount of such premiums, which tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes on such premiums, and said tax shall be assessed and collected as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that such insurance carriers shall be credited with all cancelled or returned premiums actually refunded during the year on such insurance, and with premiums on reinsurance with companies authorized and licensed to transact business in this State, which reinsurance shall be reported by the insurer; but no credit shall be allowed for reinsurance in companies not licensed to transact business in Delaware; provided, further, that mutual insurance companies shall be taxed upon the gross premium charged and collected and shall not be credited with unabsorbed premiums or dividends.

(b) Every such insurance carrier shall, between the first and fifteenth days of January, 1920, make a return verified by the affidavit of its President and Secretary, or other chief officers or agents, to the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Delaware, stating the amount of all such premiums and credits during the period covered by such return, which period shall be from and including the date of the approval of this act until and including the thirty-first day of December, 1919. Every such insurance carrier shall thereafter annually, between the first and the fifteenth days of January, make a like return verified as aforesaid, for the preceding calendar year. Every insurance carrier required to make such return shall pay to the Insurance Commissioner a tax of Four Dollars ($4.00) per hundred on such premiums ascertained as provided in subparagraph (a) of this Section, less returned premiums on cancelled policies and reinsurance with other companies licensed to transact business in this State, and upon payment file a statement with the Secretary of State. Upon receiving such payments the Insurance Commissioner shall pay the same to the State Treasurer.

(c) If any such insurance carrier shall fail to make the return required by this Act, the said Insurance Commissioner shall assess the tax against such insurance carrier at the rate herein provided for, on such amount of premiums as he may deem just, and the proceedings thereon shall be the same as if the return had been made.

(d) If any such insurance carrier shall withdraw from business in this State before the tax shall fall due, as herein provided, or shall fail or neglect to pay such tax, the Insurance Commissioner shall at once proceed to collect the same, and when so collected he shall pay the same into the State Treasury. The suit may be brought by the Insurance Commissioner in his official capacity in any Court having jurisdiction; reasonable attorneys' fees may be taxed by the Court as costs in such suit.

(e) Whenever any officer of the State of Delaware is required to give any notice to an insurance carrier, same may be given by personal delivery, or by mailed registered letter properly addressed and stamped, to the principal office or chief agent of such Insurance carrier within this State, or to its home office, or to the secretary, general agent, or chief officer thereof in the United States, or to the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Delaware.

(f) Any insurance carrier liable to pay a tax upon premiums under this Act shall not be liable to pay any other or further tax upon such premiums or on account thereof, under any other Law of this State.

(g) Every employer carrying his own risk, and thereby insuring himself, under the provisions of "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917," or Acts amendatory thereof, shall annually on or before the thirtieth day of January, report under oath to the Industrial Accident Board the total amount of his payroll for the preceding calendar year, classified in accordance with classifications approved by the Industrial Accident Board for the purpose of fixing compensation insurance rates. The Industrial Accident Board shall have power to verify such classifications and such statement of payroll by inspection and audit at the expense of the employer, and such verification shall be made by the Rating Bureau or Association provided for in 3193 zz. Section 145 of this Act, and the charges to self-insurers shall be the same charges which other insurance carriers shall be required to pay under the provisions of this Act. The said Board shall assess against such payroll a maintenance fund tax computed by taking four per centum of the amount of premium payable upon the payroll so ascertained in accordance with the classifications and premium rates approved by the said Board for insurance against liability under the said "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917" and Acts amendatory thereof. On and after the first day of January, 1920, no employer shall become or continue a self-insurer under the provisions of "The Delaware Workmen's Compensation Law of 1917" and Acts amendatory thereof, except upon the payment of the said tax for the preceding calendar year. The moneys so assessed against and paid by said insurers who carry their own risks shall be paid to the State Treasurer.

(h) All fines and forfeitures collected under the provisions of 3193 fff. Section 151 of this Act shall be paid into the maintenance fund herein provided for.

(i) All moneys received by the State Treasurer under the provisions of this Act are hereby appropriated for the purpose of paying the salaries and other expenses of the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Delaware during and for the year in which such moneys are received by the State Treasurer. Any money appropriated herein or received to the credit of the said Board or otherwise appropriated for said Board in any one year, if unexpended during said year, shall be turned into the general funds of the State at the expiration of such year. The State Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to disburse moneys in the State Treasury to the credit of the Industrial Accident Board upon its warrants signed by any two members of said Board stating the use of the moneys for which such warrant calls. All such bills other than salaries of the members of the Board and of its Secretary shall be presented, approved and paid in substantial compliance with the provisions of Section 20, Chapter 15, Revised Code of Delaware.

After the year 1919, the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Delaware shall not be authorized to incur expenses or indebtedness in any calendar year in excess of the maintenance fund created by the premium tax and the tax against self-insurers and the fines and forfeitures on hand or chargeable to such fund for the same period.

3193 fff. Section 151. (a) Any insurance corporation, mutual association or company, or interinsurance exchange, which violates any provision of this Act; or which shall neglect or refuse to comply with any of the provisions of this Act, or which shall wilfully make any false or fraudulent statement of its business or condition, or a false or fraudulent return as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) for each such offense; provided, that in the case of continuing violation, each day's continuance shall constitute a separate offense; and provided further that the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Delaware shall have power, upon complaint of the Industrial Accident Board of the State of Delaware, after notice and hearing, to suspend or revoke the license of any insurance corporation, mutual association or company, or interinsurance exchange, which violates any of the provisions of this Act.

INSURANCE FOR MASTERS, APPRENTICES AND EMPLOYEES.

(b) Any person or persons who shall in this State act or assume to act as an agent in any capacity whatsoever for any insurance corporation, mutual association or company, or inter-insurance exchange, which is not authorized to do business in this State, or whose authority to do business in this State has been suspended, while such suspension is in force, or who shall neglect or refuse to comply with any provision of this Section obligatory upon such person or persons, or who shall wilfully make any false or fraudulent statement of the business or condition of any such insurance carrier, or false or fraudulent return as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment for not more than ninety (90) days, or both, such fine and imprisonment to be in the discretion of the Court.

3193 ggg. Section 152. If any clause, sentence, paragraph or part of this Act shall for any reason be adjudged by any Court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this Act, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered unless such judgment of invalidity shall prevent the effective execution of the provisions of this Act, in which event this Act shall become and be wholly invalid and void.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS FOR NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

CHAPTER 219.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS FOR NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

AN ACT to Amend Chapter 112-A of the Revised Code of Delaware Relating to a Court of Common Pleas for New Castle County.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met (two-thirds of all the members elected to each house of the General Assembly concurring therein):

Section 1. That Chapter 112A of the Revised Code of Delaware be and the same is hereby amended by the repeal of 3763-E, Section 5 thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

3763-E. Section 5. The said Court shall have concurrent jurisdiction in New Castle County with the Superior Court in all civil actions at law, arising ex contractu or ex delicto, where the value of the matter or thing in controversy, exclusive of interest, shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars.

The amount claimed by the plaintiff, where the said claim is for a sum certain and not in excess of one thousand dollars, exclusive of interest, shall be conclusive as to jurisdiction of the said Court. In all actions at law whether ex contractu or ex delicto, not involving any sum certain, the plaintiff shall file with his statement of the case, a certificate as to the amount of damages claimed or the value of the thing or matter in controversy, which statement shall be conclusive as to the jurisdiction of the said Court. The said Court shall also have concurrent jurisdiction in actions of forcible entry, detainer and holding over of tenants, and in cases where children or grandchildren neglect or refuse to support their parents or grandparents and vice versa.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS FOR NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

The said Court shall also have the same authority at all times to receive pleas of guilty from persons charged with crimes and misdemeanors, as is now exercised by the Court of General Sessions, and thereupon to impose sentence or parole, according to law, as fully as is now done by the Court of General Sessions.

And finally said Court shall have jurisdiction, power and authority to receive, hear, try and dispose of all such arguments, cases, matters and business as, by certificates of the Judges of the Superior Court or Court of General Sessions, may be assigned or transferred to it by the Superior Court or the Court of General Sessions of New Castle County, pursuant to the rules of said Courts made for that purpose, provided the same come within the jurisdiction of the said Court of Common Pleas, and also in cases where the parties in interest are entitled to a jury trial, provided they, in writing, filed with said Superior Court, waive said jury trial.

Section 2. That Chapter 112-A of the Revised Code of Delaware be and the same is hereby amended by the repeal of 3763-I, Section 9, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

3763-I. Section 9. All civil actions in said Court shall be begun by filing a statement of the plaintiff's claim without the issuance of any formal writ. The said statements shall consist of a concise recital of the facts which the plaintiff claims gives rise to his cause of action, divided into paragraphs, consecutively numbered, as is now the practice in Bills filed in the Court of Chancery. Only one averment of fact as far as possible, shall be included in one paragraph. Where the Plaintiff's claim is based upon a written contract or other writing, a copy thereof shall be annexed to the statement of claim or reason given for the failure so to do. This statement may be filed by the plaintiff or his counsel. All statements shall be verified by the affidavit of the plaintiff or some responsible person for him, excepting counsel, and shall be signed by the plaintiff or his counsel, and shall be filed in duplicate.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS FOR NEW CASTLE COUNTY.

The Clerk of said Court shall thereupon issue a summons under the seal of the Court, requiring defendant to appear and file an answer to the plaintiff's claim within ten days after service of the statement upon him. In default of the filing of an answer within ten days the plaintiff may take judgment against the defendant as of course, provided however, that upon proper showing the Court may in its discretion, prior to the entry of judgment, extend said time for filing the Answer. In order to prevent judgment as aforesaid, the defendant must file within ten days of the service of the summons and statement upon him as aforesaid, or within the time fixed by the Court as aforesaid, an answer which shall consist of a series of numbered paragraphs corresponding to the paragraphs in the plaintiff's statement of his claim and shall contain an admission or denial of each fact averred, provided that if the defendant alleges himself to be ignorant as to the facts averred in any paragraph, he may so state and place the plaintiff upon proof of the same as if they had been denied. All facts which the defendant does not deny or aver himself to be ignorant of and demand proof as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be admitted.

The answer may be filed by the defendant or his counsel. All answers shall be verified by the affidavit of the defendant or some responsible person for him, excepting counsel, and shall be signed by the defendant or his counsel. If the defendant has filed an answer the case shall be at issue without any formal pleas unless he sets up new matter in separate numbered paragraphs in addition to those answering plaintiff's averments; in which cases plaintiff may, within five days, reply to the same in the same manner and all new matter so averred and not denied by plaintiff, or of which he does not declare himself to be ignorant and demands proof, shall be deemed to be admitted. The case shall then be at issue. Plaintiff may move for judgment for want of a sufficient answer for all or a portion of the claim.

When a case is at issue it shall be the duty of the Judge of the said Court to arrange the trial thereof as promptly as possible and notify counsel with as little delay as possible.

In an attachment to be issued under this Section, judgment may be given for the plaintiff at the expiration of sixty days after service of the writ, unless the defendant shall have appeared and filed an answer, in which case like proceedings shall be had as in other suits commenced in said Court of Common Pleas; and provided further, that if the defendant in the attachment or any sufficient person for him, shall at any time after attachment give security for the payment of any judgment that may be recovered in said proceedings, with costs, then the garnishees and all of the property attached shall be discharged and the attachment dissolved and like proceedings be had as in cases of foreign attachment in the Superior Court, in which the attachment has been dissolved by special bail. CHAPTER 234.

OFFENSES AGAINST RELIGION, MORALITY AND DECENCY.

AN ACT Defining Certain Nuisances, with Regard to Social Vice.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly met:

Section 1. TERMS DEFINED.—For the purpose of this Act the terms place, person, nuisance are defined as follows: place shall include any building, erection, or place, or any separate part or portion thereof, or the ground itself; person shall include any individual, corporation, association, partnership, trustee, lessee, agent, or assignee; nuisance shall mean any place as above defined in or upon which lewdness, assignation, or prostitution is conducted, permitted, continued, or exists, and the personal property and contents used in conducting or maintaining any such place for any such purpose.

Section 2. WHO ARE GUILTY.—Any person who shall use, occupy, establish, or conduct a nuisance as defined in Section 1, or aid or abet therein, and the owner, agent, or lessee of any interest in any such nuisance, together with the persons employed in or in control of any such nuisance by any such owner, agent, or lessee, shall be guilty of maintaining a nuisance and shall be enjoined as hereinafter provided.

Section 3. ACTION TO ENJOIN AND ABATE AND WHO MAY MAINTAIN SAME.—Whenever a nuisance exists the Attorney General of the State, or any person who is a citizen of the County, or has an office therein, may bring an action in equity in the name of the State of Delaware, upon the relation of such Attorney General, or person, to abate such nuisance, and to perpetually enjoin the person or persons maintaining the same from further maintenance thereof.

Section 4. JURISDICTION AND PROCEDURE—TEMPORARY INJUNCTION.—Such action shall be brought in the Court of Chancery of the County in which the property is located. At or before the commencement of the action a verified complaint alleging the facts constituting the nuisance shall be filed in the office of the Register in Chancery, together with a notice of the pendency of the action, containing the names of the parties, the object of the action, and a brief description of the property affected thereby. Such notice shall be immediately recorded by the Register in Chancery. After the filing of the complaint, application for a temporary injunction may be made to the Chancellor, who shall grant a hearing thereon within ten days thereafter. Where such application for a temporary injunction has been made, the Court, on application of the complainant, may issue an ex parte restraining order restraining the defendants and all other persons from removing, or in any manner interfering with, the personal property and contents of the place where such nuisance is alleged to exist until the decision of the Chancellor granting or refusing such temporary injunction, and until the further order of the Chancellor thereon. The restraining order may be served by handing to and leaving a copy of said order with any person in charge of said place, or residing therein, or by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous place at or upon one or more of the principal doors or entrances to such place, or by both such delivery and posting. The officer serving such restraining order shall forthwith make and return into Court an inventory of the personal property and contents situated in and used in conducting or maintaining such nuisance. Any violation of such restraining order shall be a contempt of court, and where such order is so posted mutilation or removal thereof, while the same remains in force, shall be a contempt of court, provided such posted order contains thereon or therein a notice to that effect. A copy of the complaint together with a notice of the time and place of the hearing of the application for a temporary injunction shall be served upon the defendants at least five days before such hearing. If the hearing be then continued at the instance of any defendant, the temporary writ as prayed shall be granted as a matter of course. Each defendant so notified shall serve upon the complainant, or his attorney, a verified answer on or before the date fixed in said notice for said hearing, and such answer shall be filed with the Register in Chancery wherein such cause is triable, but the Chancellor may allow additional time for so answering, providing such extension of the time shall not prevent the issuing of said temporary writ as prayed for. The allegations of the answer shall be deemed to be traversed without further pleading. If upon the hearing the allegations be sustained to the satisfaction of the Chancellor, the Chancellor shall issue a temporary injunction without bond restraining the defendants and any other person or persons from continuing the nuisance. When the temporary injunction has been granted, it shall be binding on the defendants throughout the State. Any violation thereof shall be contempt of court, to be punished as hereinafter provided. If at the time of granting a temporary injunction, it shall further appear that the person owning, in control, or in charge of the nuisance so enjoined has received five days' notice of the hearing, and unless such person shall show to the satisfaction of the Chancellor that the nuisance complained of has been abated, or that such person proceeded forthwith to enforce his rights under the provisions of Section 12 of this Act, the Chancellor shall forthwith issue an order closing the place against its use for any purpose until the final decision shall be rendered on the application for a permanent injunction. Such order shall also continue in effect for such further period the restraining order above provided if already issued, or, if not so issued, shall include such an order restraining for such period the removal or interference with the personal property and contents located thereat or therein as hereinbefore provided, and such restraining order shall be served and the inventory of such property shall be made and filed as hereinbefore provided; provided, however, that the owner or owners of any real or personal property so closed or restrained, or to be closed or restrained, may appear at any time between the filing of the complaint and the hearing on the application for a permanent injunction, and, upon payment of all costs incurred and upon the filing of a bond by the owner of the real property with sureties to be approved by the Chancellor in the full value of the property to be ascertained by the Chancellor, conditioned that such owner or owners will immediately abate the nuisance and prevent the same from being established or kept until the decision of the Chancellor shall have been rendered on the application for a permanent injunction, then and in that case, the Chancellor, if satisfied of the good faith of the owner of the real property and of innocence on the part of any owner of the personal property of any knowledge of the use of such personal property as a nuisance, and that, with reasonable care and diligence, such owner could not have known thereof, shall deliver such real or personal property, or both, to the respective owners thereof, and cancel or refrain from issuing at the time of the hearing on the application for the temporary injunction, as the case may be, any order or orders closing such real property or restraining the removal or interference with such personal property. The release of any real or personal property under the provisions of this section shall not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty, or liability to which it may be subjected by law.

Section 5. TRIAL PROCEEDINGS, PERMANENT INJUNCTION.—The *action when brought shall be noticed for trial at a time to be fixed by the Chancellor. In such action evidence of the general reputation of the place, or an admission, or finding of guilt of any person under the criminal laws against prostitution, lewdness, or assignation at any such place, shall be admissible for the purpose of proving the existence of said nuisance, and shall be prima facie evidence of such nuisance and of knowledge of and of acquiescence and participation therein on the part of the person or persons charged with maintaining said nuisance as herein defined. If the complaint is filed by a person who is a citizen of the County, or has an office therein, it shall not be dismissed except upon a sworn statement by the complainant and his or its attorney, setting forth the reasons why the action should be dismissed and the dismissal approved by the Attorney General in writing, or before the Chancellor. If the Chancellor is of the opinion that the action ought not to be dismissed, he may direct the Attorney General to prosecute said action to judgment at the expense of the County, and if the action is continued more than one term of Court, any person who is a citizen of the County, or has an office therein, or the Attorney General, may be substituted for the complainant and prosecute said action to judgment. If the action is brought by a person who is a citizen of the County, or has an office therein, and the Court finds that there were no reasonable grounds or cause for said action, the costs may be taxed to such person. If the existence of the nuisance shall be established upon the trial, a decree shall be entered which shall perpetually enjoin the defendants and any other person or persons from further maintaining the nuisance at the place complained of, and the defendants from maintaining such nuisance elsewhere within the State.

Section 6. ORDER OF ABATEMENT.—If the existence of the nuisance be admitted or established in an action as provided in this Act or in a criminal proceeding in any Court of competent jurisdiction in this State, an order of abatement shall be entered as a part of the decree in the case, which order shall direct the removal from the place of all personal property and contents used in conducting the nuisance, and not already released under authority of the Court as provided in Section 4, and shall direct the sale of such thereof as belong to the defendants notified or appearing, in the manner provided for the sale of chattels under execution. Such order shall also require the renewal for one year of any bond furnished by the owner of the real property as provided in Section 4, or, if not so furnished, shall continue for one year any closing order issued at the time of granting the temporary injunction, or, if no such closing order was then issued, shall include an order directing the effectual closing of the place against its use for any purpose, and so keeping it closed for a period of one year unless sooner released; provided, however, that the owner of any place so closed and not released under bond as hereinbefore provided may now appear and obtain such release in the manner and upon fulfilling the requirements as hereinbefore provided. The release of the property under the provisions of this section shall not release it from any judgment, lien, penalty, or liability to which it may be subject by law. Owners of unsold personal property and contents so seized must appear and claim same within ten days after such order of abatement is made and prove innocence, to the satisfaction of the Chancellor, of any knowledge of said use thereof, and that with reasonable care and diligence they could not have known thereof. Every defendant in the action shall be presumed to have had knowledge of the general reputation of the place. If such innocence be so established, such unsold personal property and contents shall be delivered to the owner, otherwise it shall be sold as hereinbefore provided. If any person shall break and enter, or use a place so directed to be closed, he shall be punished as for contempt as provided hereinafter. For removing and selling the personal property and contents, the officer shall be entitled to charge and receive the same fees as he would for levying upon and selling like property on execution; and for closing the place and keeping it closed, a reasonable sum shall be allowed by the Chancellor.

Section 7. DUTY OF ATTORNEY GENERAL—PROCEEDS.—In case the existence of such nuisance is established in a criminal proceeding, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to proceed promptly under this Act to enforce the provisions and penalties thereof, and the finding of the defendant guilty in such criminal proceedings, unless reversed or set aside, shall be conclusive as against such defendant as to the existence of the nuisance. All moneys collected under this act shall be paid to the County Treasurer. The proceeds of the sale of the personal property, as provided in the preceding section, shall be applied in payment of the costs of the action and abatement, including the complainant's costs, or so much of such proceeds as may be necessary, except as hereinafter provided.

Section 8. PUNISHMENT FOR CONTEMPT.—In case of the violation of any injunction or closing order granted under the provisions of this Act, or of a restraining order, or the commission of any contempt of court in proceedings under this Act, the Chancellor may summarily try and punish the offender. The proceedings shall be commenced by filing with the Register in Chancery a complaint under oath, setting out and alleging facts constituting such violation, upon which the Chancellor shall cause a warrant to issue, under which the defendant shall be arrested. The trial may be had upon affidavits, or either party may demand the production and oral examination of the witnesses. A party found guilty of contempt under the provisions of this Act shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred, nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the County jail not less than three nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 9. OTHER PROVISIONS TO STAND WHEN ONE OR MORE ARE DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL.—Should any provisions or item of this Act be held unconstitutional, such fact shall not be held to invalidate the other provisions and items thereof.

Approved April 2, A. D. 1919.

PROCLAMATIONS.

THANKSGIVING DAYPROCLAMATION.

Thanksgiving is distinctively American. It is a part of our National life, and upon the spirit of its recognition rests the stability of our institutions. Observed by our fathers in the hardships of Colonial days, it gained recognition in the Nation's stress under Lincoln. With such history and such recognition, it is peculiarly fitting that today, with Democracy on trial, we should bow in thankful acknowledgement to a guiding Providence. With the idea and ideals of Calvary standing at bay, humanity, with beseeching confidence has appealed to the strength of America, for relief and life, itself. That we are privileged to give of our harvests to starving nations, and of our manhood in defense of honor, is foundation for sincere Thanksgiving. Never in the history of our country, have we been fortunèd to give effectively so much for the world's advance. So, to stand, with our all, beside the bleeding Nations to fight for Liberty of Thought and Action, merits prayerful recognition of the God of Courts and Men. Truly, as in the past, man with tried heart, bowed in sadness, renders most devout thanks to the guiding Hand of Destiny.

In this world's sadness and misfortune, our State has played well her part, giving more of her resources than the demands of proportionate share. For all of which, and in keeping with custom and Official Proclamation, I, John G. Townsend, Jr., Governor of the State of Delaware, do designate as a Day of

THURSDAY

NOVEMBER THE TWENTY-NINTH

and strongly urge our citizens to lay aside the duties of the hour and give grateful thanks to Almighty God for the harvests and blessings received and the privileges and opportunities afforded, during this year, and to further resolve that our all be given for His Guidance.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I, John G. Townsend, Jr., Governor of the State of Delaware, have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal to be affixed at Dover, this Nineteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventeen, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Forty-second.

THANKSGIVING DAY.PROCLAMATION.

Thanksgiving this year is not merely a day, distinctively American in celebration, but an attitude of mind, world-wide in experience.

The opportunities for service and sacrifice accorded us during the year have been accepted in keeping with the past. Our better selves in thought, have been transferred into action. The ideals so gloriously striven for at the sacrifice of thought and blood seem confidently near attainment. Rights of Men and Nations, Freedom of Thought and Action are about to be realized. Our faith in the God of Destinies has been confirmed while boasts of materialism are fast being dispersed: All Nations of the world, for the first time in history, perhaps, rest today on bended knee and give thanks according to the light that is theirs. In the world's greatest struggle for Right, our country during this year has responded gloriously to the call of Honor and Humanity. Our own State has been fortunate to play nobly her proportionate part.

Giving of our time, our wealth and the blood of our sons has indeed become a part of our Nature and has in return thus ennobled our lives. Delaware has given not only of her force to the cause, but, we ourselves, are better citizens and better men.

For all of which, in accordance with proclamation by the President, in acceptance of the blessings and victories attend-and strongly urge that our citizens lay aside the complexities of material things and give grateful thanks to Almighty God for the opportunities bestowed and the victories attained during this year. And may we further resolve that with equal and unselfish energy, we dedicate ourselves to those coming problems of Peace. Then the World will be made safe for the "Right to Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness" and we can truly say "these dead shall not have died in vain."

[GREAT SEAL] IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF,—I, John G. Townsend, Jr., Governor of the State of Delaware, have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal to be affixed at Dover, this Twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighteen, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the One Hundred and Forty-third.
